

The following S'form are mandatory to bring:

~Shulchan Aruch Yoreh Deiah:

Hilchos Basar B'chalav *

M'licha (needed after Pesach)

~Gemara Sukkah (please note the change; we will NOT need K'suvos. Our sincere apologies if you already purchased one! Perhaps you can return/ exchange it in time.)

The following S'form are preferable but optional:

~The Artscroll Chumash: The Stone Edition on five Chumashim Please not: not all of Tanach/ five Chumashim only. (Nice to own but there are some in the Shul when the work is being done there; but will not be available to be borrow if needed in free time away from Shul.)

The following English S'forim will need to either be purchased (there are a few reasonable online S'forim stores or they can be purchased in a local Judaica store) or we can run copies but it will be many pages and we would have to charge for that:

~39 Milachos by R. David Ribiat Volumes 1 and 2

~The Shabbos Home Volume Two, 2003 by R. Simcha Bunim Cohen

~The Shabbos Kitchen, 1999 by R. Simcha Bunim Cohen

~ 2,000 years of Jewish History by Chaim Schloss

highly recommended for Jewish History TTI Course

~ A Lesson a Day Chofetz Chaim by Rabbis Shimon Finkelman and Yitzchak Berkovits

Highly recommended for Shmiras Haloshon TTI Course

*we have a few gently used ones we can sell at a discount for those who are interested, on a first come first serve basis. Please let me know if you are interested.

Note: There is a set of "Smicha Aid" S'forim in English available at most Chabad Judaica stores, compiled by Rabbi Yaakov Goldstien; you are welcome to purchase to use as a study guide (not for use during Shiur).

Misc. Supplies:

Backpack (very highly recommended to transport textbooks)

Several notebooks

Folders

Pens and pencils

Some highlight markers

Chrome notebook

Positive and happy attitude :)

Note: iphone or any other electronic devices, other than the chrome notebook are not needed nor wanted!
